

Public House Walks

The True Lovers Knot

TARRANT KEYNESTON

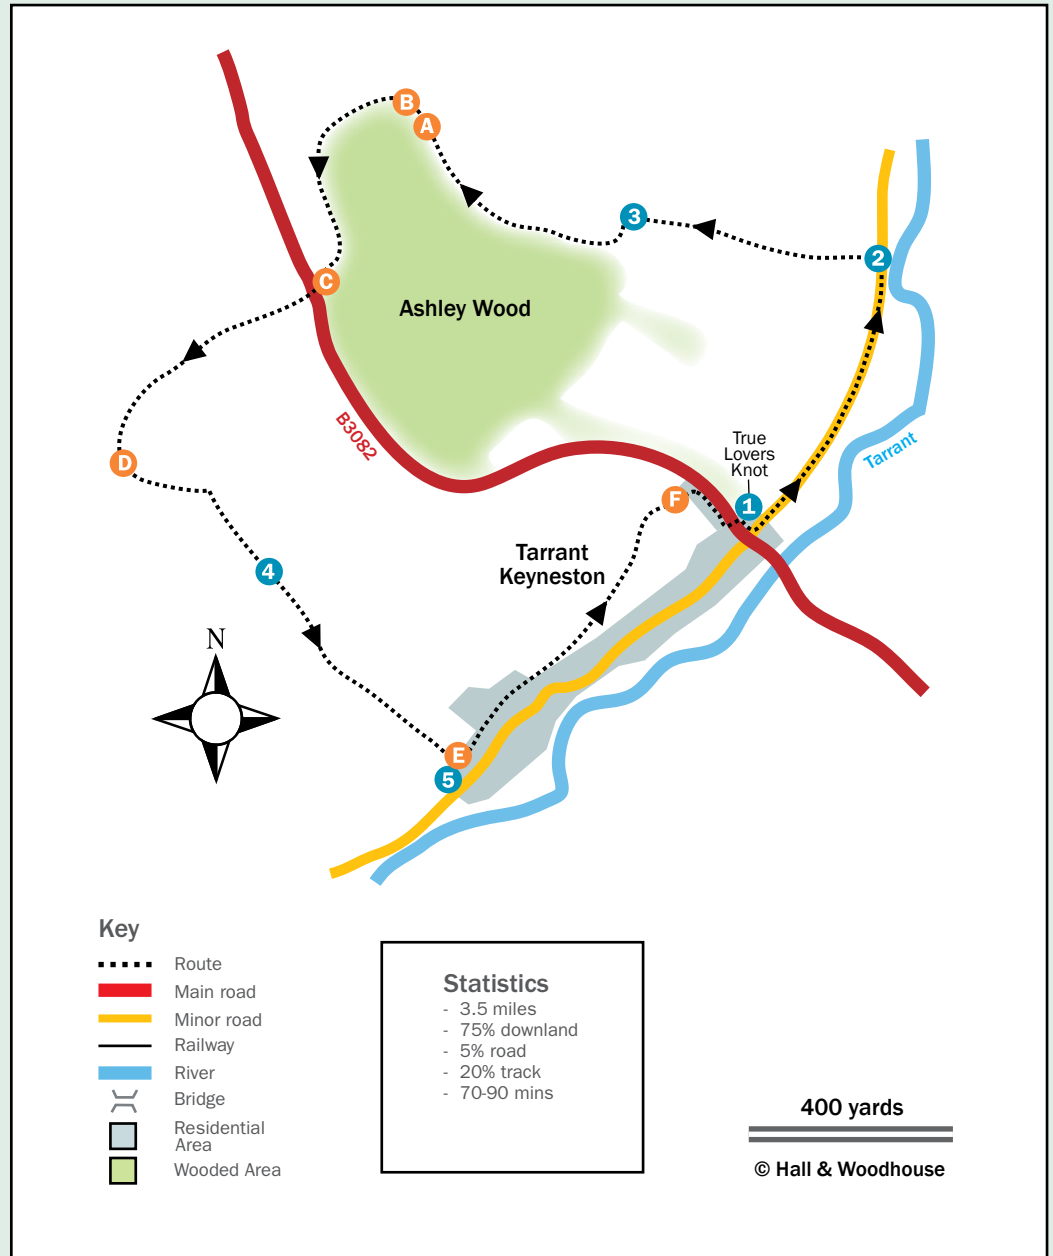

"A lovely undulating walk through the Tarrant valley over open fields and grassy paths, skirting Ashley Wood and it's famous golf club. Delightful views and pretty good under foot, a great country walk."

3.5 miles

Tarrant Keyneston, Blandford, Dorset
DT11 9JG

01258 452209

www.trueloversknot.co.uk

THE TRUE LOVERS KNOT

 = Assists

 = Landmarks

- 1 From the True Lovers Knot car park, turn left along the lane, passing Preston Farm on the right after 400 yards. 200 yards on, pass Tarrant ford to right and turn left on to path at the brideway sign to
- 2 Buzbury Rings.

The path is a gentle, steady climb and can be a little damp in places with patches of nettles. After 500 yards, the path bends left and there are good

- 3 open views to right. The grassy track, turns right after 80 metres. Continue ahead with Ashley Wood to the left and open fields to the right.

After 200 yards, you meet a gravel track. Bear right and continue for 300 yards, past the mobile phone mast and bear left again on to a grassy track

- A (see assist).

After a short distance, bear left on to mulched

- B path (see assist) and continue ahead with trees to the left and golf course to the right, ignoring crossing paths until you see the main road ahead.

- C Walk to right of the metal gate (see assist), cross the road and through metal gate opposite, continuing downhill with hedge tight to your left.

- D After 500 yards, the hedge bends round to the left, cross the stile (see assist) bear left and follow left edge of field past 2 yew trees.

- E Head straight on the grass track between two fields with trees to the right. Nice views to left over downland. After 500 yards, with the houses of Tarrant Keyneston approaching, turn left over stile (see assist). You can choose to head down to the road and visit All Saints church on the right.

- F Cross stile after 80 yards and walk straight over the road, crossing another stile. As the path opens up, keep to right edge of field, pass rusty building to the right and cross stile.

- F Keep to right edge of field and walk to right of barbed wire fence (see assist), follow path round, cross stile and pass through metal bar gate up to the main road.

Turn right and head down the pavement for a few hundred yards and cross road to the True Lovers Knot for some much deserved hospitality!

